History of Arsenal Ladies FC

Arsenal Ladies FC were formed in 1987 by the women's present General Manager and Men's present kit manager; Vic Akers. In the 17 year history, 19 major trophies have been won, including 2 domestic Trebles, 6 Premier League Titles, 7 National League Cups and 6 FA Cups, proving that the Ladies team really are the present dominant force in their domestic game.

Arsenal Ladies FC have excellent backing and support from Arsenal Football Club. Mr David Dein, who is the men's vice chairman, is the clubs President and Clare Wheatley, assisted by Ciara Grant and Faye White, are employed by Arsenal FC solely to develop and co-ordinate the female side of the club. A further 3 senior players also work at the Academy overseeing the youth development of the club. The club has continued development as the Ladies turned semi-professional in 2002, allowing the players to continue to set the standards at the top level of the game as they receive financial recognition as footballers at Arsenal FC. The 2003/04 season proved to be a fantastic season for the ladies, where they more than made up for the lack of silverware the previous year. Finishing the season as Double winners, they clinched the FA Cup with a 3-0 victory over Charlton in front of over 12,000 fans at QPR FC and live on BBC 1 with an audience of 2.2 million. They then confirmed their qualification back into the UEFA Cup, after sealing the League Title with a 3-1 defeat of Fulham Ladies at Highbury in the last match of the season, in what was the most competitive league title challenge. This season will see the Ladies represent England for a third time in four years, where they will at least try to match their best efforts as semi-finalist in 2003. The club as a whole proved that there is phenomenal talent for the future with the Reserve side also collecting their respective 'Double'. Winning the reserve league in style, finishing the season unbeaten as well as collecting their fourth consecutive League cup title in as many years. The U16's also finished their season unbeaten in the Centre of Excellence league that covers the whole of South East England. An achievement that now sees them complete two years in a row without dropping a single point. Proving that there is phenomenal talent for the future with competition for places, meaning very bright prospects for the 2004/05 campaign. The Reserve team is mainly made up from the girls in the Arsenal Youth Academy, which continues to prosper. The Academy is run under the guidance of Stan Williams and Fred Donnelly. First team players Jayne Ludlow and Emma Byrne also joined the Academy as full time staff. The Arsenal Ladies academy enables players aged between 16 and 19 to combine daily football coaching with academic study. In 2002/03 Arsenal Academy provided a third of the players in the England Under-19 training squad. Arsenal Ladies also run teams at under 16, 14, 12, and under 10 levels in the NIKE Centre of Excellence, and are planning to expand further with an under 8 team. Arsenal Ladies have continued to play their part in the development of the game. Their established Soccer Schools provides the opportunity for girls of all standards to be involved in the game. Whether it be introducing girls to the game for the first time, or providing some competition for those who have been playing longer. The soccer schools are designed to offer girls aged 7-14 the chance to see what football has to offer and continue to bring opportunities to more and more potential players in a fun and relaxed environment.

Vic Akers Arsenal Ladies Manager

We would like to welcome Djurgarden/Alvsjo Ladies FC and our supporters to today's vital Women's UEFA Cup semi-final match, second leg.

As you may know, we played the first leg in Stockholm, Sweden last Thursday where we came away with a very respectable draw (1-1). This means today's game could go either way with the UEFA Cup final at stake. Quite often in football, matches that have greater importance than normal attached to them such as today's game and cup finals etc tend not to be great spectacles to watch. However, we would rather get a result today than play pretty football as opposed to playing great football and lose. We would like to thank the supporters who travelled to Sweden to support us last week, in addition to the Arsenal Swedish Supporters Group who looked after us so well after the match. Your presence was fully appreciated and your support certainly helped us on the pitch. In my last programme notes, I cordially welcomed on board our new Sponsors; Barry Allsuch&Co. - Radlett, Elstree and Borehamwood's Premier Estate Agents. Since then, our sponsors have very vocally supported us the width and breadth of the country travelling to the Leeds and Bristol Rovers matches in the Premier League witnessing two excellent victories. Martin and Barry Allsuch also travelled to Stockholm last week and were vocal in their support in our draw with today's opponents. To see such commitment and interest from our sponsors is highly motivational and encouraging when we continue with our quest for glory this season. It is probably safe to say that today's match is one of, if not, the biggest match (excluding Internationals) of the Arsenal Players' careers to date. We have been in a UEFA Cup semi final prior to this year but we had a mountain to climb in the return leg and didn't really believe we could do it. However, today is different. We have an unbelievable chance of making it to the biggest final on any football club's calendar and we will give everything we can to get there. Enjoy today's game.

UEFA WOMEN'S CUP SEMI-FINAL FIRST LEG THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 2005

DJURGARDEN 1

GOAL: Fleeting

An amazing double save by Emma Byrne preserved Arsenal's precious 1-1 draw at Djurgarden in the UEFA Women's Cup Semi-Final first leg on Thursday evening.

Julie Fleeting had given Vic Akers' side the lead in the 23rd minute but Elin Ekblom replied seven minutes before the break. It left the match delicately poised going into the final stages.

With 16 minutes left Djurgarden had their moment. Kristin Bengtsson forced Byrne into a fine save and the ball bounced up to Venus Jones but the American's header was scooped out by the Irish keeper.

Byrne later saved from Bengtsson again as Djurgarden pushed for a winner but Arsenal deservedly held on. They must be delighted with the advantage they will take into next Friday's second leg at Boreham Wood FC.

The Swedish side settled the quicker when the game began. Arsenal were further knocked when leading scorer Julie Fleeting suffered a knee injury and needed to be bandaged up. She soldiered on and soon put the visitors in front after racing onto a through-ball from Angela Banks and lobbing the keeper from 10 yards.

Now it was Djurgarden's turn to be rocked. However they leveled in the 38th minute when, following a weak clearing header from Leanne Champ, debutant Ekblom volleyed past Byrne from 15 yards. Fleeting succumbed to her injury seven minutes after the restart and Lianne Sanderson came on. However Arsenal's scoring chances did not depart with the Scottish striker. Banks raced on to a through ball by Clara Grant and turned her marker. However, with only the keeper to beat she fired straight at the Djurgarden No1. The ball rebounded to Sanderson but she could not convert. Byrne's brace of blinding blocks soon followed and, after that, the game rather petered out to its conclusion.
