BÅGSPÄNNAREN

UEFA
Conference League
Round of 16

Välkommen tillbaka till StockholmsArenan, där vi ikväll tar emot Cypriotiska Pafos i returnmötet i Conference Leagues Åttondelsfinal. I den första matchen började hemmalaget bäst men ju mer matchen led desto närmre kom vi ett mål. Det fanns definitivt chansen att kvittera men det hade också kunnat bli 0-2 i baken, så ett måls underläge är ändå en bra förutsättning för att ha bra möjligheter att avancera till nästa runda.

Om det skulle bli avancemang spelas kvartsfinalerna 10 resp 17 april. Så innan det är det dags för Allsvenskan igen. Vi startar hemma mot Malmö FF lördagen den 29 mars kl 14.00, vilket bara är två veckor bort.

Då är matchprogrammet tillbaka i tryckt

Returmatch i cupspel, förutsättningarna är klara. Vi måste vinna för att kunna gå vidare till nästa runda, kvartsfinal.

Vid ett målsmarginall, blir det förlängning och vid lika även där avgörs åttondelen på straffar. Vinner vi med mer än ett mål går vi vidare till kvartsfinal. Oavgjort eller förlust så är det Pafos som spelar kvartsfinal i april.

På andra sidan i kvartsfinalen står vinnaren i kvällens möte mellan Rapid Wien och Borac. Den första matchen slutade 1-1.

Läget i laget

Idagens match är Danielson avstängd efter att i slutskedet av första mötet dragit på sig sitt tredje gula kort i Conference League spelet.

Flera spelare, Hümmet, Sabovic, Wikheim, Oscar Jansson, Magnus Eriksson och inte minst Haris, har lämnat truppen sedan gruppspelen. In har vi fått Nino Zugelj, Hampus Finndell är tillbaka, samt att Hampus Nilsson Säfqvist går in i UEFA truppen.

Vi fick möjlighet att lägga till tre nya namn innan 6 feb, men även på B-listan, unga spelare där vi utökat truppen med framtidsnamn som Alieu Manneh Gideon Granström, Isak Alemayehu Mulugeta och Kalipha Jawla.

Jani Honkavaara inför matchen:

– Det känns som att vi ligger rätt bra i fas. Vi hade en tuff föregående vecka där vi spelade två matcher och alla fick ordentligt med speltid. Det medförde lite tyngre ben igår, men det var bättre fart idag under tisdagsträningen. Vi har försökt att hålla passen rätt kompakta så här långt och det syns att alla börjar växla upp. Nu ska vi fortsätta att pusha laget både fysiskt och mentalt för att alla ska vara redo för att gå för seger på torsdag, berättar Jani som intygar att uppbackningen på läktarna lär boosta laget rejält.

– Vårt hemmastöd kommer att göra skillnad för oss. Vi har spelat två matcher i cupen på hemmaplan nu och det har varit ett bra tryck, speciellt senast mot IFK Göteborg. Så vi ska kliva ut och svara upp med samma energi ute på planen. En plan täckt av ett relativt nylagt konstgräs som de flesta Pafos-spelarna inte är vana vid.

– Vi hoppas att det kan ställa till det lite för dem. Sedan är det inte helt enkelt för vår del heller och vi måste fortsätta att vänja oss vid mattan. Bollen uppför sig inte alltid som väntat, den flyter lite ovanpå och ändrar riktning ibland. Fast vi har ändå mer vana än Pafos på konstgräset, samtidigt har Pafos så pass skickliga spelare att de borde kunna hantera det bra. Men kanske påverkar det lite...

Jani Honkavaara om Pafos

– Pafos är ett väldigt bra lag med mycket individuell skicklighet. De var aggressiva senast och vi fick inte mycket tid på oss, så vi måste agera bättre när vi äger bollen nu på torsdag. Pafos är ett så pass bra lag att vi inte enbart kan förlita oss på att spela oss ut deras press, spelarna måste även vinna dueller och lösa situationer en-mot-en – eftersom man inte får så mycket tid med bollen. Överlag måste vi åstadkomma ännu mer när vi har bollen och spela vårt eget spel. Vi valde medvetet en annan approach kring det nere på Cypern, men nu måste vi kliva fram och visa vad vi går för.

The club Pafos FC was formed as late as June 2014. However the foundation is built on three other clubs.

In 2000 the club AEP Paphos FC (Athlitiki Enosi Pafos, Athletic Union of Paphos) was formed as a merge by the two clubs of Pafos: APOP and Evagoras. In contrast with the other Districts of Cyprus and other major towns, which had permanent teams in First Division, Paphos did not have such a team as the two clubs of the town, APOP Paphos and Evagoras, could not remain in First Division for many years. For this reason the two clubs were merged to form AEP Paphos F.C. as the people of Paphos wanted a permanent team in First Division. At the time of merging AEP got the First Division spot form APOP, while Evagoras ended in the Second Division. But AEP did not justify the dreams of the people of Paphos of having a better team than APOP and Evagoras. They were still jumping back and forth between First and Second division. So in 2014 a new merge was finalised when AEP merged with AEK Kouklia from the same Paphos region in the village of Kouklia. AEK Kouklia, founded in 1968, had only been in the Cypriots league system since 2006, before that the team participated in regional and Pafos Federation competitions since the federation was founded in 1971. Between 2006 and 2012 they ascended from fifth division to the second division. After the 2013-14 season the club was facing a big burden of debts and had been demoted to the B2 group of the Second Division with the risk of further relegations. The rebranding of AEK Kouklia as Pafos FC (incorporating AEP) to establish a team representing the entirety of Paphos city and district, garnering support from fans and stakeholders of both AEP and Paphos at large.

Pafos FC competed in the 2014–15 Cypriot Second Division, in their first season as a club. The team finished in second place and was promoted to the First Division. In the 2015–16 season, in the first participation of Pafos FC in the first division, the team finished in 12th place and was relegated. In following season the team ended second again and gained promotion for the second time to the First Division

At this point new owners, Russian Roman Dubov, entered. Changes in the club's structure, the academy's operational processes, renovation of the Pafos FC Training Center along with resounding transfers significantly raised the level of the club which now appears to be one of the most modern and well-equipped teams in Cyprus.

Since Dubov's arrival, the team's placement in the league has improved or remained constant every year, from 2018 until 2023. On 25 February 2022, a new attendance record was set for Pafos FC, as 4661 fans came to support the club in a 1–1 home draw against Aris Limassol, which secured a place in the championship playoffs for the first time in the club's history.

On 24 June 2023, Juan Carlos Carcedo was announced as the new Head Coach of Pafos. In May 2024, Pafos won the Cypriot Cup, marking the club's first major honour. As a result of the cup victory Pafos was for the first time qualified for a UEFA tournament and entered Europa League but knocked out of the first qualifying round they continued in this edition of the Conference League.

Djurgårdens Idrottsförening (DIF) is one of the oldest, most well-renowned and successful sports associations in Sweden. Founded on the island of Djurgården in east of Stockholm in 1891, today the club is represented by 26 different departments with a total of 479 gold medals until 2024. The most popular departments are of course football and ice hockey. DIF is has been for a long time the only Swedish club with both their men's and women's side having football and ice hockey teams in the premier league, but for some seasons the men's hockey team been in second tier, but still one of the highest attendancies of the sport in Sweden. Furthermore, the club has had great success in other sports such as fencing, boxing and athletics.

The club emblem is a shield with yellow, red and blue stripes. The blue and yellow colours represent Sweden and the red colour is the symbol of love. The blue-striped shirts of the football team has given them the nickname Blåränderna - simply "Bluestripes".

Stockholmsarenan (sponsorship name: 3 Arena, previous Tele2 Arena) is the men's football home ground since 2013, but for several decades the home games were held at the beautiful Stockholm Stadion - a cultural landmark, built for the 1912 Summer Olympic Games. It is still considered by many fans as the "real" home of DIF. Stadion is still an important part of the club's identity. It is now the home stadium of the women's team.

In 2022 Djurgården reaced the Group Stage the first time in a UEFA cup. Besides Conference League DIF has played in the qualification to Champions League (2020) and for Europa League (2018, 2020) in recent years. This tournament is the third time that we compete in the Europa Conference League.
